

Division II 2010 Outdoor Track & Field All-Americans Announced

Top eight in each event from last weekend's NCAA Championships tapped as All-Americans in outdoor track & field

May 31, 2010

NEW ORLEANS – The U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) announced on Monday the 336 student-athletes that will receive USTFCCCA All-America honors in Division II. A total of 434 awards will be presented to the 336 individuals as a result of a national top-eight finish in last weekend's NCAA Division II Outdoor Championships in Charlotte, N.C.

Saint Augustine's won the NCAA men's team title for the second-straight year and for the 11th time overall. With 82 points and five event champions, the Falcons took the spot over Abilene Christian who scored 62. Saint Augustine's men led with 20 individuals receiving All-America nods, followed by Angelo State (12) and Central Missouri and Lincoln (Mo.) (11).

On the women's side, Angelo State also received 20 All-America certificates while Lincoln (Mo.) earned 16 nods and Grand Valley State tallied 13. Angelo State won their first NCAA team title, scoring 87 points with three event champions. Lincoln (Mo.) took second with 73 team points.

MEN'S NOTES

- Saint Augustine's junior Josh Scott recorded double NCAA crowns in the 200 and 400 meters. Scott, the defending 400-meter champ won this year's one-lapper in 45.11 over CIAA rival Leford Green of Johnson C. Smith. Scott won the 200 meters in 20.53. Scott also claimed double relay NCAA national titles with a lead-off leg of the 4x100 (39.75) and as the anchor of the Falcons' 4x400 (3:04.95).
- Green did win the 400-meter hurdles in a blazing time of 48.67. Only Olympic medalist Bershawn Jackson has run faster at an NCAA Division II Championship (48.50). Scott's time also places him as a top-10 World performer in the event in 2010.
- Reuben Mwei, a senior from Adams State, won the 3000-meter steeplechase for the second-straight year, winning this year's race in 8:48.30.
- Abilene Christian junior Amos Sang earned the 5000-10,000 double with a nine-second victory in the 10k on Thursday night (30:04.98), winning over two-time defending champ Daniel Kirwa of Harding. In the 5000 meters, Sang was challenged by Queens' Michael Crouch who finished less than a second behind.
- Indiana (Pa.) junior Nafee Harris won his second-straight long jump title, besting the field with a best of 26-1½ (7.96m).

WOMEN'S NOTES

- Angelo State junior Aisha Adams defended her NCAA heptathlon title winning with a total score of 5,698. In all, Adams was responsible for 36 of the Rambells' 87 points, adding a second-place showing in the 400 hurdles, a third in the long jump, a fourth in the triple jump, a fifth in the high jump, and a sixth in the 100-meter hurdles. That's right, Adams earned All-America honors in all six events in which she was entered.
- Abilene Christian senior Linda Brivule won her third-straight javelin crown. Notching a best throw this year of 166-1 (50.62m), Brivule was the winner by nearly six feet.

- Sophomore Semoy Hackett of Lincoln (Mo.) reset the all-time Division II best in winning the women's 200-meter dash in 22.75 and into a headwind (-0.5 m/s). Hackett topped what was the Division's all-time best and NCAA meet record of 22.85 set in 1993 by Norfolk State's Chandra Sturup. Hackett also won the 100 meters, marking the second-straight year in which she earned the double-sprint win.
- Seattle Pacific senior Jessica Pixler won her 12th overall NCAA crown with a dominate win in the 1500 meters. Pixler, winning by nearly eight seconds (4:15.43) over Grand Valley State's Monica Kinney (4:23.00), claimed her third outdoor 1500-meter national title.
- Adams State freshman Alicia Nelson won the 3000-meter steeplechase in an NCAA-meet record time of 10:11.48. Shippensburg's Mary Dell, who finished second in 10:20.37, also bettered the former 2008 record of 10:20.42 set by Winrose Karunde. Nelson clocked the second-best all-time Division II mark, trailing only Trina Cox's 2006 run of 10:05.19.
- Shippensburg sophomore Neely Spence won her second-straight NCAA Outdoor title in the 5000-meter run. Spence clocked 16:14.23 in winning over Queens (N.C.)'s Tanya Zeferjahn by more than six seconds.
- Zeferjahn did take the 10,000-meter crown on Thursday (34:46.59) for her second-consecutive national crown in the event.
- Johnson C. Smith junior Shermaine Williams won a second-straight NCAA championship in the 100-meter hurdles, clutching victory over Adams State's Indira Spence by an eyelash in a 13.14 to 13.15 photo finish.
- In another thriller, Lincoln (Mo.) frosh Michelle Cumberbatch held off Angelo State multi-eventer Aisha Adams to clock a championships-meet record time of 56.85. Adams' time of 56.93 was also under the 2006 meet record of 57.18 set by Lynnsey Dailey. Defending champ Christine Merrill of UC San Diego was third at 58.04.
- Lincoln (Mo.) took the 4x100-meter crown for the second-straight year. This year's squad of Kirlene Roberts, Semoy Hackett, Sudian Davis, and Tia Rolle clocked 44.73. Hackett and Davis were also on the 2009 squad that won the NCAA title.
- Lincoln (Mo.)'s Racquel Anderson won the long jump over teammate and defending champ Anna Kay Campbell by virtue of second-best jumps. Anderson and Campbell both notched a best of 19-11½ (6.08m) in their opening jumps, but Anderson's second-best mark of 19-6¼ (5.95m) on her fourth attempt bettered Campbell's second-best, fifth-round attempt of 19-5½ (5.93m).
- Fort Valley State junior Antionette Oglesby captured the NCAA title in the triple jump for the second-straight year, leaping to 42-6¼ (12.96m) this year to win by 17 inches.
